

Washington Transportation Plan

YOUR PLAN FOR THE FUTURE OF TRANSPORTATION IN WASHINGTON

One Plan – Two Phases

WTP Phase 1 – Policy

- Adopted by Transportation Commission January 2015
- Established 20 year vision
- Highlighted emerging trends
- Recommended actions based on your input
- Website: www.wtp2035.com

WTP Phase 2 – Implementation

- Washington State's Multimodal Long-Range Statewide Transportation Plan
- Retains Washington's eligibility for federal funding
- Builds on WTP Phase 1 – Policy
- Due December 2017

Implementation Phase – Why now?

- Transportation is changing – new technologies, expanded travel options and preferences, and changing demographics
- Identify strategies for all modes in which the state owns or has an interest
- Respond to new federal and state approaches and direction addressing congestion and climate change
- State's emphasis on Practical Solutions to develop flexible and sustainable transportation investments

We need your help during the Implementation Phase

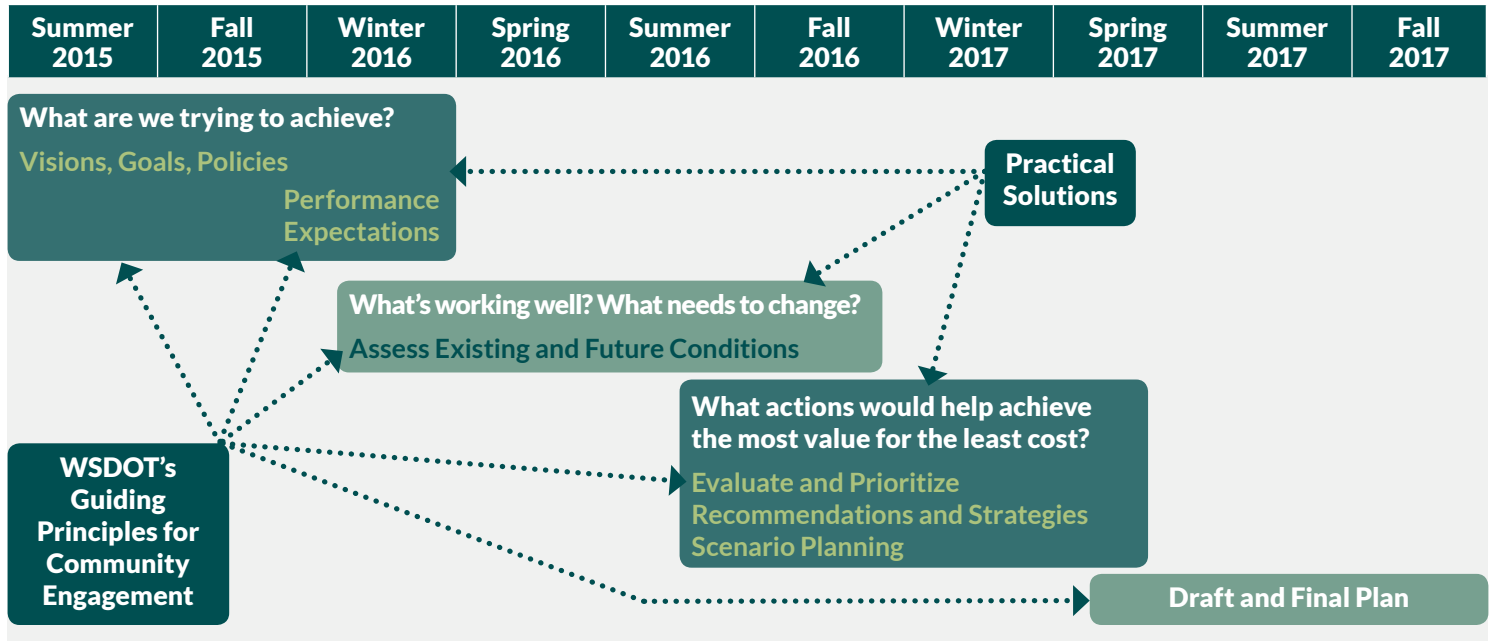

Help us develop recommendations that will:

- Define system performance
- Right-size solutions
- Increase system reliability
- Improve connections between modes

How can you help?

- Submit feedback on the WTP website
- Connect with a local transportation planning organization
- Request a briefing
- Attend a workshop
